FLOODING IN IOWA LEADS TO CANCELLATION OF TRANS-AM RACE AT RUAN DES MOINES GRAND PRIX

DES MOINES, Iowa — Round Seven of the SCCA Trans-Am Tour at the Ruan Des Moines Grand Prix was canceled due to flood-related problems.

The race was scheduled for Sunday at 3:30 p.m., but heavy flooding in the Greater Des Moines area forced Ruan Grand Prix officials to cancel all Grand Prix-related events on Sunday.

The Ruan Grand Prix ran all its scheduled events on Saturday, including the SCCA Trans-Am Tour's Kenwood Fast Five qualifying, the SCCA World Challenge race, the SCCA American Continental Championship race, the Olds Pro Series race, as well as qualifying sessions for the Dodge/Shelby Pro Series and the Geo Storm Celebrity event.

But by approximately 10:45 p.m. Saturday night, the water level of the Des Moines River, which the racing circuit crossed, had reached near-disastrous heights and flooding in the lower levels of Des Moines forced Mayor John "Pat" Dorrian to declare a state of emergency in Des Moines. Sunday's events at the Ruan Grand Prix were subsequently canceled.

By early Sunday morning, fresh water supplies and electrical power were lost to several areas in Des Moines, including the downtown area where the event was staged.

On schedule for Sunday was the weekend's premier event, the 55-lap SCCA Trans-Am Tour, the 28-lap SCCA Dodge/Shelby Pro Series race, and the 12-lap Geo Celebrity race. The Trans-Am event was slated for live broadcast on ESPN, which ran a tape of the 1992 event in that time-slot, instead.

SCCA Pro Racing Vice President Bob Anderson said the full race purse will be dispersed to the 29-car field, based on the qualifying times. Scott Sharp, in the Rain-X Camaro, picked up his fourth pole of the season and received the normally distributed drivers' point for the effort. However, Drivers' Championship and Manufacturers' Championship points weren't distributed.

In an unrelated decision earlier in the weekend, an SCCA Pro Racing Court of Appeals decided that Trans-Am Chief Steward John Martinsen's rules interpretation following a late-race incident at Portland between Ron Fellows and Scott Sharp was correct, but changed Martinsen's penalty.

The court reinstated the 15 drivers' points that Fellows lost and the five manufacturers' points Ford lost after Martinsen's post-race decision at Portland. Instead, the Court levied a $5,000 fine against Fellows.

Following the Court of Appeals decision and the cancellation of the Trans-Am race at the Ruan Des Moines Grand Prix, the revised points standings for the top-five in the Trans-Am Drivers' Championship are:

- | | |
|-----------------|-------------|
| 1, Scott Sharp | 164 points* |
| 2, Ron Fellows | 143 |
| 3, Bobby Archer | 128 |
| 4, Jack Baldwin | 124 |
| 5, Greg Pickett | 121 |

*Earned a point for the pole at Des Moines

The revised points standings for the Trans-Am Manufacturers' Championship are:

- | | |
|--------------|----|
| 1, Chevrolet | 40 |
| (tie) Ford | 40 |
| 3, Dodge | 32 |

The SCCA Trans-Am Tour continues Saturday, July 17, at the Molson Indy in Toronto, Ontario.
